1.0 Introduction

The City of Gallatin Police Department is accepting bids for the purchase of a Patrol and Detector Dog. Bids will be due on June 21st, 2013 at 2:00 pm in a sealed envelope clearly marked: Patrol and Detector Dog

1.1 Scope of Work

The Gallatin Police Department is seeking a dual purpose K-9 that will perform narcotics detection duties to identify and locate narcotics substances. In addition to its narcotics detection duties, the canine will be trained and utilized as a multi-purpose patrol dog that will have the abilities to enhance patrol operations by a trained officer in building searches, area search, tracking, intruder detection, and patrol officer safety and criminal apprehension.

2.0 Vendor Requirement

- Provide a suitable canine which has successfully completed a 10- week basic patrol dog course.
- Provide veterinarian examination, inoculations, and x-rays of both hips and elbows.
- Provide documentation, veterinarian records, training records etc.
- Eighteen week training course, meeting United States Police Canine Association standards.
- Ten weeks (eight weeks patrol/2 weeks narcotics) of hands on instruction, with handler the Police department has chosen.
- Monthly retraining and documentation for the handler and canine, minimum of sixteen hours per month.
- If problems occur during the month, additional training will occur to correct problems.
- Vendor warranties that K9 will successfully complete the training or a replacement dog will be provided by the company. Vendor will replace K9 at their cost. A guarantee of graduation from training by the K9 is required.

3.0 Evaluation of Proposals

The City of Gallatin will award the contract to lowest responsible and responsive bidder meeting specifications, quality, and performance standards pursuant to the Municipal Purchasing Act of 1983. Response will be based on the following factors;

- Completeness of response
- Cost
- Vendor track record, including references
- Quality of service
- Quality of product

4.0 Contract Award

The City of Gallatin reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive any informality found therein. The City of Gallatin will award a contract based on evaluations described above.
